
Title: Verdict of Teflon Billy

Author: Yew Court of Justice

We, the Judges of the Yew Court of Justice, found insufficient evidence to acquit Teflon Billy of the charges of Arson and Causing Bodily Harm.
Despite lack of overwhelming evidence of his guilt, the defence only established his past as a man of Virtue, but this is insufficient to prove innocence. Thus, the Court of Justice has found the charges of Arson and Causing of Bodily Harm to be upheld.

We have taken the character witnesses for Teflon Billy into consideration in our sentencing in this case.
Our sentence in this case is as follows:

- 1) Teflon Billy will be banned from the lands of the Island of Moonglow for a period of six months.
- 2) We also call for his incarceration on the Isle of Jhelom for six weeks.

This second part of his sentencing shall be suspended providing he does not violate the first part.

It should be brought to the attention of this court with unimpeachable evidence of Teflon Billy violating the prohibition from the Island of Moonglow, then we shall invoke

the second part of his sentence and he shall be incarcerated on the
weeks.

This is the finding of the Justices of the Yew Court of Justice.
Let these findings be filed and posted throughout the land.
